HURRICANE DEVASTATES PORTO RICO ISLAND

MANY LIVES ARE LOST, PROPERTY LOSS IS HEAVY

DEATH, SUFFERING AND DESTRUCTION SPREADS THROUGH ENTIRE ISLAND

TORNADOES STRIKE THREE MID-WESTERN STATES, 13 PERSONS KNOWN DEAD

By THOMAS E. BENNER
Chancellor, University of Porto Rico
By Cable to the United Press
(Copyright, 1928, by United Press)

San Juan, Porto Rico, Sept. 14.—(UP)—Many lives have been lost in the tropical hurricane which devastated this island yesterday. Property loss will reach millions.

Death, suffering and destruction was spread through the entire island. It was impossible today even to begin to approximate the loss. All communications were disrupted.

Thousands were homeless today and in dire need as famine and disease threatened them.

What may have happened in the interior of the island is horrible to think of. Hospitals near San Juan were unroofed and 80 per cent of the families are without shelter.

The water supply of San Juan and surrounding cities was cut off.

Medical supplies, food and shelter were needed at once. The island is not equipped to replace five per cent of the homes destroyed.

Cocoonut, coffee and banana plantations were totally destroyed. Other smaller crops were wiped out, cutting off the major food supply.

Many more deaths from famine and disease were believed inevitable unless relief was organized at once.

The intensity of the storm can be realized when it is considered that the wind velocity at 11 A. M. yesterday, three hours before the storm attained its greatest fury, was 85 miles an hour.

Heavy rain added to the damage caused by the wind.

Washington, Sept. 14.—A West Indian hurricane which swept across the Virgin Islands Wednesday night, and struck Porto Rico yesterday, was believed centered today over or near Santo Domingo and Southern Haiti.

It was sweeping west-northwestward at the rate of 400 miles a day and was expected to strike Cuba unless its course changed.

While U. S. weather bureau officials emphasized there is no definite cause for alarm on the Florida coast, as the storm probably will not reach there, they said the hurricane was even greater than that which struck Haiti several weeks ago and might be as violent as the one that swept Miami in 1926.

New York, Sept. 14.—First indications of the seriousness of the tornado that swept over Porto Rico were received today. The first messages from San Juan said that "ruins are all over" and that the storm was so great that an automobile being used to run messages to the French cable office, could not venture out because of the storm's force.

DEATH AND DAMAGE IN MANY PARTS OF U. S.

Death, suffering and heavy property damage were reported from various parts to the United States and the West Indies today from hurricanes and cyclones.

A tropical hurricane, which swept up from near the Virgin Islands, spread ruin in the vicinity of San Domingo and Haiti, the latter just recovering from a devastating storm that killed hundreds and made 100,000 homeless a little more than a month ago.

As it roared over Porto Rico yesterday the winds were estimated at more than 130 miles an hour. Ships were reported damaged and buildings unroofed. Today there were no reports of casualties.

The government weather bureau at Washington warned ships in the vicinity. They said, however, there was little likelihood of the winds extending to the United States coast line.

Thirteen persons were known dead in tornadoes that struck three mid-western states—Nebraska, South Dakota and Iowa—last night. Scores were reported injured and property damage was great.

The towns of Homer, Walthill and Dakota City suffered the greatest in Nebraska, where seven deaths were reported. Another great wind storm hit Fordyce City, Neb., and swept into South Dakota, doing the great-

C. M. LAUTERMILCH CROWNED CHAMPION SAUERKRAUT EATER

Springfield, Minn., Sept. 14.—(UP)—Crowned with a link of hog's head, C. M. Lautermilch, Tiffin, Ohio, today was proclaimed monarch of the sauerkraut eaters after he had consumed 15 pounds, three and one-half ounces of the juicy, fermented cabbage.

Lautermilch, equally familiar in spaghetti and pie eating circles, won the crown from five other contestants, including "Doc" Schmidt, former champion, who retired after he had eaten 14 pounds of kraut.

The Ohio man is less than five and one-half feet tall and weighs but 140 pounds.

SHIP TO SHORE MAIL PLANE IS RESCUED

DEMOUGET AND 2 COMPANIONS
SET OFF FROM ILE DE FRANCE

ARE LANDED BY STEAMER AT NEWLYN, CORNWALL, IN ENGLAND

Plymouth, England, Sept. 14.—(UP)—Commander Louis Demouget and two companions, lost in a ship-to-shore mail plane from the liner Ile De France, have been rescued at sea.

A message received here today said they had been landed at Newlyn, Cornwall, by a steamer. Newlyn is in the southernmost tip of England, near Penzance.

Plymouth, England, Sept. 14.—The missing postal plane from the Ile De France was sighted today 28 miles off Bishop's rock in tow of a sailing vessel, a British seaplane informed authorities here.

Two British seaplanes left Portland and two started out from here to join tugs hunting the channel for the French plane.

The report of the British plane did not give details. It was considered likely, however, that the aviators were safe, as their seaplane was sturdy, and that they floated after being forced down until picked up by the fishing boat.

The report of the seaplane ended a search that had lasted all night for Commander Louis Demouget and two companions who left the liner Ile De France with American mail at 9:30 A. M. yesterday.

The Ile De France was 90 miles west of the Scilly Islands at the time. Although the plane carried wireless, nothing was heard from it after it left the liner.

The plane reported, however, that the three fliers were safe and visible aboard the sailing ship.

FOUR BANDITS HOLD UP IOWA BANK

Des Moines, Sept. 14.—(UP)—Four bandits today held up the University State Bank here and escaped with between $7,000 and $8,000.

While the robbery was in progress Sam Raphael, a merchant, walked in. He was slugged by one of the bandits and later he was taken to a hospital.

NO CONCESSIONS TO GAME HUNTERS

St. Paul, Sept. 14.—(UP)—George W. McCullough, state game and fish commissioner, announced today that the agreement whereby Minnesota hunters were permitted to shoot game on the South Dakota side of border lakes, without a special license, had proved unsatisfactory and hereafter non-resident licenses would be required.

est damage at Watshon and Davis. Six deaths were reported in South Dakota and there was considerable property damage in Iowa.

High winds did considerable damage in New Hampshire.

Sioux City, Ia., Sept. 14.—At least 13 persons were dead today in the neighboring states of Nebraska and South Dakota as the result of a tornado that ripped a narrow path through those states.

Six died in South Dakota and seven in Nebraska, according to a United Press survey.

Whisper Campaigning Proves Obnoxious to Both Candidates In the Presidential Race

REPEATED EFFORTS TO QUASH MANY SLANDERS MADE

REPUBLICANS THINK DEMOCRATS MAY SET UP SMITH AS MARTYR TO GOSSIP

SENATOR REED SMOOT ISSUES A STATEMENT FOR DEMOCRATIC CONSUMPTION

By PAUL R. MALLON
Washington, Sept. 14.—Hoover headquarters here are worried about the whisper campaigning which appears to be gaining the momentum of a snowball rolling down hill.

Repeated efforts to quash slanderous assertions about both candidates thus far have been unsuccessful. Meantime some republicans foresee the possibility that the democrats may attempt to set up Gov. Smith, the democratic nominee, as a martyr to gossip.

Robert Work, chairman of the republican national committee, issued a statement last Sunday denouncing the slander campaign, but the whispering has persisted. Senator Reed Smoot, republican, Utah, issued a statement yesterday in which he said "Governor (addressing Smith) the way to martyrdom is not via 'what Mrs. Jones says to Mrs. Brown'." He counseled Smith to avoid what he termed "clothesline gossip."

In this campaign, however, there have been more whispers than usual. Hoover warned against such tactics in his acceptance speech and public efforts have been made by members of the republican national committee to suppress such. Chairman Raskob of the democratic national committee applauded Work's anti-whispering statement.

Democrats already have begun their defense against rumors against them and republicans believe the democrats are planning to appeal to "fair play" for their candidate.

Hoover is known to believe there are just as many stories in circulation against him as there are against Smith, and that there is nothing he personally can do about it.

The candidate conferred with his vice presidential running mate, Sen. Curtis of Kansas and his manager, Work, at his personal headquarters today. They intended to discuss the whispering subject in conjunction with other phases of the campaign preparatory to Curtis' departure later today on a swing through the west.

Washington, Sept. 14.—Chairman Work of the republican national committee charged today that Sen. Robinson, democratic vice-presidential candidate, and others, have "wilfully distorted" facts in connection with Herbert Hoover's attitude toward crop price maintenance during the armistice.

He said that Robinson, in a speech at Charlotte, N. C., on Wednesday night, quoted single sentences from Hoover's correspondence to show Hoover tried to lower farm prices, "when as a matter of fact the entire correspondence was a protest from Mr. Hoover against attempts of George N. Peek and the democratic cabinet in Washington to reduce prices."

Similar "tactics," Work said, are being used by "other democratic speakers, such as J. F. Reed of Minnesota."

ALLAN HOOVER WORKING FOR HIS FATHER

Washington, Sept. 14.—(UP)—Allan Hoover, 21-year-old son of the republican presidential nominee, has gone to work in his father's personal headquarters here.

Hoover is helping George Akerson, secretary to the candidate, by answering telephones, running important errands and generally making himself a confidential handy-man around the place. He is very popular with the newspapermen, photographers and followers of the headquarters.

ENGLISH ROYALTY STARTS TOUR OF WORLD BY AIR

London, Sept. 14.—(UP)—The Viscount de Sibur, accompanied by the vicomtesse, formerly the American girl, Miss Violette Selfridge, left Stag Lane airdrome, London, today on an around-the-world flight in a Moth light airplane.

The plane is named the Safari II. The vicomtesse was dressed in khaki drill trousers, silk khaki shirt sweater and leather coat. Their first scheduled stop is Paris.

GERMANY SEEKS EVACUATION OF THE RHINELAND

BASIS FOR REACHING AN AGREEMENT WITH ALLIES APPROACHING

CONCRETE PROPOSALS TO BE CONSIDERED IN SUNDAY SESSION

By HENRY WOOD
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Geneva, Sept. 14.—A basis for reaching an agreement on Germany's demand for evacuation of the Rhineland has been reached by the allied powers, it was understood authoritatively today.

The representatives of England, France, Belgium, Italy and Japan will meet with Hermann Mueller, German chancellor, again on Sunday. At that time, it is expected concrete proposals will be formulated as a starting point for future negotiations.

The United States will be asked to take a prominent part in the settlement, the United Press learned on high authority.

REORGANIZATION OF FRUIT COMPANY

St. Paul, Sept. 14.—(UP)—Amended articles discontinuing 10 Gamble-Robinson Fruit Company firms in Minnesota on Sept. 29, were filed today with the secretary of state.

A new corporation, formed in July known as the Gamble-Robinson Co. of Delaware, will unite the previously independent branches of the firm here and will spend approximately $730,000 in Minnesota operations.

The new organizations will have control of branches in Minneapolis, St. Cloud, Willmar, East Grand Forks, Rochester, Bemidji, Alexandria, Wadena and Thief River Falls.

WIDE SPLIT IN DEMOCRATIC PARTY OF N. D.

GOV. WALTER T. MADDOCK TO SEEK RE-ELECTION ON THE DEMOCRATIC TICKET

SAID HE SEEKS TO ATTRACT THE NON-PARTISAN LEAGUE VOTES TO SMITH

Bismarck, N. D., Sept. 14.—(UP)—A wide split in the democratic party was foreseen today as a result of the announcement that Governor Walter T. Maddock, delegate to the republican national convention, will seek re-election on the democratic ticket.

Maddock was elected lieutenant-governor two years ago on the republican slate and recently became governor upon the death of Governor A. G. Sorlie, Frank L. Andekon, regular democratic gubernatorial candidate, announced that he will withdraw in favor of Maddock "for the good of the party."

The shifting of Maddock to the democratic ranks was labelled by anti-league forces as an effort to attract Non-partisan League votes to Governor Smith. The league faction recently refused to endorse the candidacy of Herbert Hoover, republican.

Governor Maddock will run against Attorney General George Schafer, anti-league candidate, in the November election. He has long been a Non-partisan supporter. Maddock is expected to draw many of the league republican votes.

Charles Simson, chairman of the democratic state executive committee, last week announced he would not support the democratic slate with Maddock a candidate for governor. Simson announced he would make a statement today.

L. S. Platou, endorsed for governor by the Non-partisan convention, was expected to withdraw from the race to support Maddock.

FERRYBOAT 'SEATRAN' LAUNCHED IN ENGLAND

Newcastle, Eng., Sept. 14.—(UP)—The ferryboat "Seatrain" which was built to carry loaded freight cars between Havana and New Orleans, was launched Thursday by Swan Hunter and Wigham Richardson for the Overseas Railway, Inc., of New York.

The launching of the "Seatrain," which is 427 feet long and will carry 92 freight cars, attracted wide attention. The boat is fitted with triple expansion type engines.

The 92 freight cars will be carried partly in hold and partly on the upper deck. It is estimated that the boat will carry 7,000 tons.

PILOT SAVED BY DARING STUDENTS

Two student aviators recently risked their lives standing in flames while they extricated pilot from his home-made plane which had crashed and taken fire during races at Kansas City airport. All three were burned, but will recover.

BREAK MYTH OF CAMPAIGN YEAR BAD FOR BUSINESS

Washington, Sept. 14.—(UP)—Governmental and other commercial experts united today in branding as a myth the tradition that a campaign year is bad for business.

Latest available statistics showed that such basic industries as steel and automobile production continue at high levels while building contracts let are now 96.7 per cent of the average in 1923-25.

A similar situation was said to exist in other important industries with such recessions as have occurred attributed to normal seasonal decreases rather than to the campaign.

There was a fractional falling off in employment during July, the bureau of labor statistics reported, but held this was due to seasonal slackening.

SMITH NOW TO SPEAK IN ST. PAUL, DECIDED

IMPOSSIBLE TO SECURE SUITABLE HALL IN MINNEAPOLIS FOR MAIN TALK

ALL ADMISSIONS BY TICKETS, RURAL VOTERS TO BE ISSUED INVITATIONS

St. Paul, Sept. 14.—(UP)—State and county democratic leaders today indicated they would adhere to the original plans of Governor Alfred E. Smith's speaking here instead of Minneapolis.

Impossibility of securing a suitable hall in the Mill city has led to abandonment of plans for Governor Smith's main night speech there. It is thought that arrangements may be made for him to deliver a speech there at noon, however.

The address will be delivered in the St. Paul auditorium, it was tentatively announced today. The Minneapolis auditorium could not be obtained because of a convention and University of Minnesota authorities declined to let the university field house because of an aversion to leasing buildings for political rallies of the kind.

That the appearance of the democratic presidential candidate will be a direct appeal for the agricultural vote was seen in the announcement today that rural voters would be issued invitations before those of the Twin Cities.

All admissions will be by tickets, it was announced.

NEGRO IS SHOT AND KILLED IN QUARREL

St. Paul, Sept. 14.—(UP)—John Gillard, 30, negro, was shot and killed here shortly before noon today during a quarrel with W. J. Jones, 33, also colored, according to several witnesses.

Four negroes who were present when Gillard was killed said the men quarreled over $10 which Jones said was due him on a loan.

The witnesses were held while police sought Jones.

STOCK EXCHANGE MEMBERSHIPS REACH NEW HIGH RECORD

New York, Sept. 14.—(UP)—Stock exchange memberships went to a further record high today with a sale being arranged at $415,000, an increase of $5,000 over the previous high made earlier this week.

PLANES, TROOPS WILL PROTECT MEXICAN RAILWAYS

Mexico City, Sept. 14.—(UP)—Additional airplanes and troops have been dispatched into the interior to protect the railroads after new attempts to wreck border trains.

Orders have been reissued for the summary trial and execution for all caught tampering with the rails and other equipment.

The latest effort to wreck a train was on the Laredo line Wednesday when a large stone was placed on the tracks near the Rinconillo station.

NON-STOP RUN COMES TO GRIEF, BATTERING WINDS

GOEBEL WAS FORCED DOWN FOR FUEL, CONTINUES TO FINAL GOAL

WIND TEARS AWAY DOOR AND BATTERS THE CRAFT BADLY

Mines Field, Los Angeles, Sept. 14.—(UP)—Nine planes—entrants in the trans-continental non-stop air derby—were scattered across the United States today as mute evidence that man-made machines cannot always defy the laws of nature.

Only one plane completed the trip from New York to Los Angeles, and that one was forced to come down for fuel near Prescott, Ariz., after being battered by head winds. It was the Yankee Doodle, piloted by Col. Art Goebel, winner of the Dole race to Hawaii.

Goebel failed to win the $12,500 first prize, but added another record to his long list of aerial triumphs.

He broke the east-west non-stop record for trans-continental flights with the unofficial time of 23 hours and 50 minutes.

Recently he set a new mark for a west-east flight across the nation by spanning the continent in 18 hours and 58 minutes.

Reports today gave the location of the other eight planes that started from Roosevelt Field as follows:

George Haldeman and Shirley Short in a Bellanca—down at Albuquerque, N. M.

Nick Namer in Buhl Air Sedan—down at Rawlins, Wyo.

Jack Iseman in Charles A. Levine's trans-Atlantic monoplane Columbia—forced down at Amarillo, Texas.

John Morris and Col. William Thaw in a Lockheed-Vega—down near Indianapolis, Ind., with a broken oil line.

Bill Burgin in a Bellanca—down at Willard, N. M.

Clifford McMillin in a Stinson-Detroiter—landed near Wilkesbarre, Pa.

Ralph Page in a Stinson Junior—went down at Allentown, Pa.

Oliver C. Leboutellier, in Mrs. James A. Stillman's Bellanca, returned to Roosevelt Field shortly after their start.

Goebel and Tucker showed the strain of their long battle with the elements when they landed. The wind had torn away one door from the Yankee Doodle and the craft was battered badly.

TO HONOR MEMORY OF CAPT. AMUNDSEN

Chicago, Sept. 14.—(UP)—To honor the memory of Capt. Roald Amundsen, famed Arctic explorer, who sacrificed his life in an attempt to rescue the crew of the dirigible "Italia," Commander Richard E. Byrd will drop a small flag over the South Pole when he makes his forthcoming dash into the Antarctic. It was announced here today. The flag is an emblem of the Salvation Army Mariner's League of which Amundsen was an honorary member.

DELEGATES SEEM HUMAN AFTER ALL

Geneva, Sept. 14.—(UP)—George Bernard Shaw reported as follows on his observations of the League of Nations in action here.

"The thing that impressed me most was the look of boredom on the face of the delegates when one man spoke for two hours and also the way all brightened up when a pretty secretary entered the room wearing a new frock."

WING SECTION IS NOT FROM AMUNDSEN PLANE

Oslo, Norway, Sept. 14.—(UP)—The piece of an airplane wing found in the Tromsø channel yesterday did not belong to the Roald Amundsen plane, as at first supposed, it was established today.

The wing was identified as having belonged to an airplane carried by the French cruiser Strasbourg, which crashed during a coastal survey recently.

FERRYBOAT 'SEATRAN'
LAUNCHED IN ENGLAND

Newcastle, Eng., Sept. 14.—(UP)—The ferryboat "Seatrain" which was built to carry loaded freight cars between Havana and New Orleans, was launched Thursday by Swan Hunter and Wigham Richardson for the Overseas Railway, Inc., of New York.

The launching of the "Seatrain," which is 427 feet long and will carry 92 freight cars, attracted wide attention. The boat is fitted with triple expansion type engines.

The 92 freight cars will be carried partly in hold and partly on the upper deck. It is estimated that the boat will carry 7,000 tons.

BREAK MYTH OF CAMPAIGN YEAR
BAD FOR BUSINESS

Washington, Sept. 14.—(UP)—Governmental and other commercial experts united today in branding as a myth the tradition that a campaign year is bad for business.

Latest available statistics showed that such basic industries as steel and automobile production continue at high levels while building contracts let are now 96.7 per cent of the average in 1923-25.

A similar situation was said to exist in other important industries with such recessions as have occurred attributed to normal seasonal decreases rather than to the campaign.

There was a fractional falling off in employment during July, the bureau of labor statistics reported, but held this was due to seasonal slackening.

SMITH NOW TO SPEAK IN ST. PAUL, DECIDED

IMPOSSIBLE TO SECURE SUITABLE HALL IN MINNEAPOLIS FOR MAIN TALK

ALL ADMISSIONS BY TICKETS, RURAL VOTERS TO BE ISSUED INVITATIONS

St. Paul, Sept. 14.—(UP)—State and county democratic leaders today indicated they would adhere to the original plans of Governor Alfred E. Smith's speaking here instead of Minneapolis.

Impossibility of securing a suitable hall in the Mill city has led to abandonment of plans for Governor Smith's main night speech there. It is thought that arrangements may be made for him to deliver a speech there at noon, however.

The address will be delivered in the St. Paul auditorium, it was tentatively announced today. The Minneapolis auditorium could not be obtained because of a convention and University of Minnesota authorities declined to let the university field house because of an aversion to leasing buildings for political rallies of the kind.

That the appearance of the democratic presidential candidate will be a direct appeal for the agricultural vote was seen in the announcement today that rural voters would be issued invitations before those of the Twin Cities.

All admissions will be by tickets, it was announced.

NEGRO IS SHOT AND KILLED IN QUARREL

St. Paul, Sept. 14.—(UP)—John Gillard, 30, negro, was shot and killed here shortly before noon today during a quarrel with W. J. Jones, 33, also colored, according to several witnesses.

Four negroes who were present when Gillard was killed said the men quarreled over $10 which Jones said was due him on a loan.

The witnesses were held while police sought Jones.

STOCK EXCHANGE
MEMBERSHIPS REACH
NEW HIGH RECORD

New York, Sept. 14.—(UP)—Stock exchange memberships went to a further record high today with a sale being arranged at $415,000, an increase of $5,000 over the previous high made earlier this week.

PLANES, TROOPS WILL PROTECT
MEXICAN RAILWAYS

Mexico City, Sept. 14.—(UP)—Additional airplanes and troops have been dispatched into the interior to protect the railroads after new attempts to wreck border trains.

Orders have been reissued for the summary trial and execution for all caught tampering with the rails and other equipment.

The latest effort to wreck a train was on the Laredo line Wednesday when a large stone was placed on the tracks near the Rinconcillo station.

NON-STOP RUN
COMES TO GRIEF,
BATTERING WINDS

GOEBEL WAS FORCED DOWN FOR FUEL, CONTINUES TO FINAL GOAL

WIND TEARS AWAY DOOR AND BATTERS THE CRAFT BADLY

Mines Field, Los Angeles, Sept. 14.—(UP)—Nine planes—entrants in the trans-continental non-stop air derby—were scattered across the United States today as mute evidence that man-made machines cannot always defy the laws of nature.

Only one plane completed the trip from New York to Los Angeles, and that one was forced to come down for fuel near Prescott, Ariz., after being battered by head winds. It was the Yankee Doodle, piloted by Col. Art Goebel, winner of the Dole race to Hawaii.

Goebel failed to win the $12,500 first prize, but added another record to his long list of aerial triumphs.

He broke the east-west non-stop record for trans-continental flights with the unofficial time of 23 hours and 50 minutes.

Recently he set a new mark for a west-east flight across the nation by spanning the continent in 18 hours and 58 minutes.

Reports today gave the location of the other eight planes that started from Roosevelt Field as follows:

George Haldeman and Shirley Short in a Bellanca—down at Albuquerque, N. M.

Nick Namer in Buhl Air Sedan—down at Rawlins, Wyo.

Jack Iseman in Charles A. Levine's trans-Atlantic monoplane Columbia—forced down at Amarillo, Texas.

John Morris and Col. William Thaw in a Lockheed-Vega—down near Indianapolis, Ind., with a broken oil line.

Mill Burgin in a Bellanca—down at Willard, N. M.

Clifford McMillin in a Stinson-Detrolter—landed near Wilkesbarre, Pa.

Ralph Page in a Stinson Junior—went down at Allentown, Pa.

Oliver C. Leboutellier, in Mrs. James A. Stillman's Bellanca, returned to Roosevelt Field shortly after their start.

Goebel and Tucker showed the strain of their long battle with the elements when they landed. The wind had torn away one door from the Yankee Doodle and the craft was battered badly.

TO HONOR MEMORY
OF CAPT. AMUNDSEN

Chicago, Sept. 14.—(UP)—To honor the memory of Capt. Roald Amundsen, famed Arctic explorer, who sacrificed his life in an attempt to rescue the crew of the dirigible "Italia," Commander Richard E. Byrd will drop a small flag over the South Pole when he makes his forthcoming dash into the Antarctic, it was announced here today. The flag is an emblem of the Salvation Army Mariner's League of which Amundsen was an honorary member.

DELEGATES SEEM HUMAN AFTER ALL

Geneva, Sept. 14.—(UP)—George Bernard Shaw reported as follows on his observations of the League of Nations in action here.

"The thing that impressed me most was the look of boredom on the face of the delegates when one man spoke for two hours and also the way all brightened up when a pretty secretary entered the room wearing a new frock."

WING SECTION IS NOT FROM AMUNDSEN PLANE

Oslo, Norway, Sept. 14.—(UP)—The piece of an airplane wing found in the Tromsøe channel yesterday did not belong to the Roald Amundsen plane, as at first supposed, it was established today.

The wing was identified as having belonged to an airplane carried by the French cruiser Strashbourg, which crashed during a coastal survey recently.

Hard to Determine Age
There is no sure way in which to determine the age of a hard-shell turtle. In most instances the plates are examined closely with a microscope, and on these plates there can be noticed scale expansion. This scale expands as the turtle grows, leaving a ring of growth. These rings are counted the same as those of a tree.

Birthday Party
A party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Severson in West Brainerd Wednesday evening. The party was held in honor of Mr. Severson's birthday and he received a number of gifts. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Johnson and Mr. and Mrs. John Fourre.

BRainerd's ODDEST STORIES OF TODAY
In the heaviest downpour of the storm early this morning, P. J. Casey of 1023 Southeast Oak street, borrowed a pair of rubber boots to wade into his backyard and save his chickens which were marooned on a sandbar near the woodshed.

Hard to Determine Age
There is no sure way in which to determine the age of a hard-shell turtle. In most instances the plates are examined closely with a microscope, a d on these plates there can be noticed scale expansion. This scale expands as the turtle grows, leaving a ring of growth. These rings are counted the same as those of a tree.

More Worry for Them
Looks like these societies who get all het up about undernourished children might take a little interest, too, in the husbands of wives who are on a diet.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Giant Mushroom
A lavender mushroom is eaten in England under the name of "Blewitt." It grows as large as six inches across the top, says Nature Magazine, with a stem occasionally as thick as a man's wrist.

AUXILIARY BAND CONTINUES DRIVE

Sponsor Benefit Movie at Lyceum Theatre, September 24 and 25

TO PRESENT SPECIALTY

Share of Receipts to Aid in Raising Money for San Antonio Trip

The ladies of the American Legion Auxiliary Band are continuing their drive to raise money for their trip to the national convention of the American Legion at San Antonio, Texas. They will soon start the sale of tickets for a "self benefit movie" at the Lyceum to be presented on September 24 and 25. Besides a good movie they are going to present a specialty known as an Opera Burlesque, to be presented by the Brainerd "Grand Uproar Company." The giving away of a breakfast set will be an added attraction on their program.

Despite the fact that they have billed several features in addition to the regular program they have decided not to boost the regular admission prices of the theatre.

In the Opera Burlesque which promises to be a riot of fun the following have been selected to take the parts of the principals and the chorus: R. Jenkins, Dr. A. K. Cohen, A. C. Mraz, William Anderson, John M. Bye, D. H. Fullerton, M. Bredenberg, H. Westerlund, G. Walstrom, Mrs. Irene O'Brien Krekelberg, Mrs. Frances Hartman Paine, Miss Jennie Beck, Miss Hildegarde Erstad, Mrs. Esther Fogelstrom Fredstrom, Mrs. Hilda Weimer Hall, Mrs. Rachel Kinler Moulster, Mrs. Dorothy Lydon Mahlum, Miss Harriet Sager, Miss Effie Drexler, director; and Mrs. Bessie St. Johns Knudsen, pianist.

Billie Dove in "The Night Watch" will be the picture presented in connection with the special features.

ESDON

A large number of those interested in the work of the A. S. S. union attended the services in the Esdon school house conducted by W. J. Smith on Sunday. The Esdon ladies aid gave $10 toward the work, the Sunday school $10 and all birthday offerings for the past year, besides many individual subscriptions.

The Esdon school commenced Sept. 4, with Miss Florence Sander, teacher.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus. Spry are so well suited with this neighborhood that they have decided to remain on the Rosenkranz place for another year.

Mrs. Martha Coddling, who has spent the summer at her cottage on Crooked Lake has gone to Cloquet, Mr. Zehring and family and Dr. Dean and family have returned to Iowa.

Messrs. Farrell and Meyer of Minneapolis who have been at Guin's left for home on Wednesday.

VOTE FOR HOOVER AND LAW ENFORCEMENT

YESTERDAY the Dispatch published a communication from Donald Ryan in which he takes the Dispatch to task for referring in an editorial to Governor Smith's non enforcement of the 18th amendment as producing a contempt for all law, and said the Dispatch's expressed belief that because of this non enforcement of the liquor law he was getting the support of all the undesirable elements in the country was an insult to the thousands of good people supporting Governor Smith.

The Dispatch distinctly stated that hundreds of thousands of the finest and best people of the country were supporting Mr. Smith for various reasons that to them made him more desirable to them than the republican nominee, and it surely is no insult to them to refer to the fact that the other element were lining up for him because of what they think will be to their advantage.

The Dispatch has never said a word against the character of Mr. Smith nor questioned his sincerity, but believes because of his lack of sympathy with the 18th amendment he has neglected his duty for its enforcement as governor of New York.

Mr. Ryan says Mr. Smith did not consent to the repeal of the New York enforcement law. The repeal law was passed by the New York legislature and signed by Mr. Smith as governor, and according to current news reports at the time Mr. Smith used his influence to secure its passage, and it was later adopted by vote as required by law. However, Mr. Smith did not endeavor to enforce it while it was a law before its repeal.

Mr. Ryan's statement that Mr. Smith, as governor, took an oath to support and execute the provisions of the constitution of the United States and not the laws is silly quibbling, and no one knows it better than Mr. Ryan, who is a good lawyer.

Mr. Ryan's attempt to justify Gov. Smith's non enforcement of the 18th amendment because the corrupt republican organization in Chicago is equally if not a worse offender is no defense of Governor Smith, and an unfortunate comparison, as the Dispatch would resent classing Gov. Smith, who has a reputation of enforcing other laws than the liquor laws, with Big Bill Thompson, who apparently disregards all law. But it is the defection of this element in Chicago, Philadelphia and other large cities to Smith that makes his election a possibility.

As stated in our editorial of Tuesday, it is up to those who want to see the enforcement of all laws, to vote for Herbert Hoover, the republican nominee.

MIGRATIONS

AT various seasons of the year one sees migrations under way. In August one notices turtles crossing the highways and their crushed shells are mute evidence of the danger they run when traversing traffic packed roads.

Then, again, during warm rains one may see nightly migrations of frogs and many are again squashed by the juggernaut of car wheels.

This morning, however, following the heavy, persistent rain which started last evening, one saw a strange slowly moving procession of angle worms stringing their way across cement sidewalks. The average small boy fisherman just hated to go to school and pass all this bait invitingly displayed on the walk like ribbon on a drygoods counter.

CUYUNA RANGE AGRICULTURAL FAIR

THE Cuyuna Range Agricultural Fair is a most ambitious undertaking and is annually showing a great improvement. It will open its doors at the Crosby armory on this Friday noon and continue until 10 p. m. Saturday. In addition to products of the farm and vegetable garden displayed, there will also be a flower show.

The women's department will be one of the features of the fair. The programs are all interesting and entertainment has been planned for both evenings.

Showing in Boys' and Girls' club work has been stimulated by the Crosby Legion Post which is giving $5 cash prizes to the boy and the girl doing the best work. The Crosby band and Legion drum corps will play on the opening night of the fair.

SEWERS INADEQUATE

SEWERS laid years ago are proving inadequate when it comes to removal of heavy rains. In the business section of Brainerd a heavy rain is always sure to flood basements and will continue to do so until steps are taken to remedy conditions.

Near the fill the municipal ball park gets a large overflow and looks like the delta of the Mississippi. And beyond it, in Southeast Brainerd, further damage has been recorded today.

Some believe the catch basins are too small. The sewers in the business section cannot quickly carry off a sudden heavy rainfall. Eventually, however, the business section will pay as much covering damages by flooded basements, regularly sustained, as would pay for the improved sewer system.

HOOVER CLUBS IN THE COUNTY

HOOVER for President clubs are now being organized throughout Crow Wing county. A meeting will shortly be called in Crosby under the supervision of Mrs. E. F. Andberg.

All those interested in republican principles are invited to be present and take part in the meeting which will shortly be called.

The republican county committee has opened headquarters in Brainerd.

If all plans of the democrats are like the one selecting a place for Smith's speech in Minnesota, the party has little stability. One reads he will give his main address in Minneapolis and then in St. Paul, until the average voter will be dizzy keeping track. State and county democratic leaders today indicated they would adhere to the original plans of the governor's speaking at St. Paul instead of Minneapolis.

THE requirement of the Minnesota law that all legal residents of the state must have Minnesota motor vehicle licenses if they want to use their cars in the state, was confirmed by District Judge Graham M. Torrence in a recent decision.

THAT California man who is beginning on the fourth year in jail rather than obey a court to pay alimony is almost stubborn enough to make an ideal juror, says the Terre Haute Star.

KRASSIN STILL LOOKING FOR ROALD AMUNDSEN

ALSO SEARCHING FOR SIX OF DIRIGIBLE ITALIA ENVELOPE PARTY

IF RUSSIAN ICE BREAKER FAILS 12 WILL BE GIVEN UP FOR LOST

Moscow, Sept. 14.—(UP)—The final search for Roald Amundsen and his five companions and the six men in the dirigible Italia envelope party started today and if it fails the 12 explorers will be given up as lost.

The steamship Krassin, which rescued so many members of the Italia crew and their rescue parties and which now is engaged in a last search for the Amundsen and Alexandri parties, has been ordered to return to Russia within a fortnight.

The last reconnoitering route will be in the region of Seven Islands to Victor Island and thence eastward. Chukhnovsky, the Russian aviator, will make airplane reconnoiters over the region. Today he was held by bad weather.

Meanwhile the Italia relief committee, formed when the polar dirigible went down in the Arctic, organized an expedition to search for a group of five Russian aviators who are lost in the Arctic.

The Soviet airplane "Soviet Sever" started on August 19 on a flight from Vladivostok to Leningrad, directly across the Arctic region. No word has been heard of the plane.

The Soviet ice cutter Astrakhan, carrying two airplanes, proceeded to the area between North Cape, Caledonia, Guba and Wrangle Island, where it is believed the plane may have landed.

SMELTZER IN BROAD DENIAL OF ALL CHARGES

TESTIFIES IN HIS OWN BEHALF IN ALLEGED BRIBERY CHARGES

SAYS HE ACCEPTED NO BRIBE MONEY FROM BOOT-LEGGERS

Hastings, Sept. 14.—(UP)—Testifying in his own behalf, C. W. Smeltzer, South St. Paul mayor, today made a sweeping denial of charges that he had accepted bribe money from bootleggers.

The mayor, who is expected to be one of the last witnesses in the bribery trial, denied:

He had ever accepted money for procuring foodstuffs licenses for soft drink parlor owners.

He had ever talked with Talbert Erickson, state star witness, concerning licenses. (Erickson, former city attorney, previously testified that he and the mayor divided graft money.)

He had talked with Erickson about the grand jury investigation which resulted in the indictment of the mayor and Alderman Charles Zeman.

The mayor declared that he had repeatedly protested grant of licenses to soft drink parlor owners whose establishments had been raided for liquor law violations.

Smeltzer said that when Erickson informed him that the grand jury was to make an investigation of vice conditions in South St. Paul, he told Erickson that they had best not discuss the question but should leave the entire matter to the jury.

It was believed today that the mayor's case would be in the hands of the jury either late this afternoon or tomorrow.

10 YEAR OLD BOY KIDNAPED, HELD FOR RANSOM

TWO MEN IN CHICAGO HELD TODAY FOR QUESTIONING IN MATTER

THREAT OF DEATH OVER YOUNG WM. RANIERI, AND RANSOM SET AT $60,000

Chicago, Sept. 14.—(UP)—Two men were held by police today for questioning in connection with the kidnaping of 10-year-old William Ranieri, held under threat of death for a ransom of $60,000.

The men were Salvatore Mastroianni, owner of a poolroom, and Reando Skid, a sewer digger who had been employed by A. Frank Ranieri, the boy's father, a sewer contractor.

Police arrested the men when it became known Ranieri had consulted with them secretly. It was believed Mastroianni and Skid might be acting as go-betweens for the father and the abductors.

Ranieri previously had told police he was confident his son would be returned today. He was believed to have been in communication with the kidnapers yesterday and to have arranged for the boy's return.

It was investigation of the father's secret journey to supposed agents of the extortionists that led to the two arrests. Police hoped to obtain information from Mastroianni and Skid which might lead to arrest of the ring leaders of Chicago's Mafia.

The action of the father in attempting to negotiate with the kidnapers through his own people was looked on by police as evidence of his fear that police activity and publicity would bring upon him and his son vengeance included in the Mafia code.

VOTE FOR HOOVER AND LAW ENFORCEMENT

YESTERDAY the Dispatch published a communication from Donald Ryan in which he takes the Dispatch to task for referring in an editorial to Governor Smith's non enforcement of the 18th amendment as producing a contempt for all law, and said the Dispatch's expressed belief that because of this non enforcement of the liquor law he was getting the support of all the undesirable elements in the country was an insult to the thousands of good people supporting Governor Smith.

The Dispatch distinctly stated that hundreds of thousands of the finest and best people of the country were supporting Mr. Smith for various reasons that to them made him more desirable to them than the republican nominee, and it surely is no insult to them to refer to the fact that the other element were lining up for him because of what they think will be to their advantage.

The Dispatch has never said a word against the character of Mr. Smith nor questioned his sincerity, but believes because of his lack of sympathy with the 18th amendment he has neglected his duty for its enforcement as governor of New York.

Mr. Ryan says Mr. Smith did not consent to the repeal of the New York enforcement law. The repeal law was passed by the New York legislature and signed by Mr. Smith as governor, and according to current news reports at the time Mr. Smith used his influence to secure its passage, and it was later adopted by vote as required by law. However, Mr. Smith did not endeavor to enforce it while it was a law before its repeal.

Mr. Ryan's statement that Mr. Smith, as governor, took an oath to support and execute the provisions of the constitution of the United States and not the laws is silly quibbling, and no one knows it better than Mr. Ryan, who is a good lawyer.

Mr. Ryan's attempt to justify Gov. Smith's non enforcement of the 18th amendment because the corrupt republican organization in Chicago is equally if not a worse offender is no defense of Governor Smith, and an unfortunate comparison, as the Dispatch would resent classing Gov. Smith, who has a reputation of enforcing other laws than the liquor laws, with Big Bill Thompson, who apparently disregards all law. But it is the defection of this element in Chicago, Philadelphia and other large cities to Smith that makes his election a possibility.

As stated in our editorial of Tuesday, it is up to those who want to see the enforcement of all laws, to vote for Herbert Hoover, the republican nominee.

KRASSIN STILL LOOKING FOR ROALD AMUNDSEN

ALSO SEARCHING FOR SIX OF DIRIGIBLE ITALIA ENVELOPE PARTY

IF RUSSIAN ICE BREAKER FAILS 12 WILL BE GIVEN UP FOR LOST

Moscow, Sept. 14.—(UP)—The final search for Roald Amundsen and his five companions and the six men in the dirigible Italia envelope party started today and if it fails the 12 explorers will be given up as lost. The steamship Krassin, which rescued so many members of the Italia crew and their rescue parties and which now is engaged in a last search for the Amundsen and Alessandri parties, has been ordered to return to Russia within a fortnight.

The last reconnoitering route will be in the region of Seven Islands to Victor Island and thence eastward. Chukhnovsky, the Russian aviator, will make airplane reconnoiters over the region. Today he was held up by bad weather.

Meanwhile the Italia relief committee, formed when the polar dirigible went down in the Arctic, organized an expedition to search for a group of five Russian aviators who are lost in the Arctic.

The Soviet airplane "Soviet Sever" started on August 19 on a flight from Vladivostok to Leningrad, directly across the Arctic region. No word has been heard of the plane.

The Soviet ice cutter Astrakhan, carrying two airplanes, proceeded to the area between North Cape, Canada, Guba and Wrangle Island, where it is believed the plane may have landed.

SMELTZER IN BROAD DENIAL OF ALL CHARGES

TESTIFIES IN HIS OWN BEHALF IN ALLEGED BRIBERY CHARGES

SAYS HE ACCEPTED NO BRIBE MONEY FROM BOOT-LEGGERS

Hastings, Sept. 14.—(UP)—Testifying in his own behalf, C. W. Smeltzer, South St. Paul mayor, today made a sweeping denial of charges that he had accepted bribe money from bootleggers.

The mayor, who is expected to be one of the last witnesses in the bribery trial, denied:

He had ever accepted money for procuring foodstuffs licenses for soft drink parlor owners.

He had ever talked with Talbert Erickson, state star witness, concerning licenses. (Erickson, former city attorney, previously testified that he and the mayor divided graft money.)

He had talked with Erickson about the grand jury investigation which resulted in the indictment of the mayor and Alderman Charles Zeman.

The mayor declared that he had repeatedly protested grant of licenses to soft drink parlor owners whose establishments had been raided for liquor law violations.

Smeltzer said that when Erickson informed him that the grand jury was to make an investigation of vice conditions in South St. Paul, he told Erickson that they had best not discuss the question but should leave the entire matter to the jury.

It was believed today that the mayor's case would be in the hands of the jury either late this afternoon or tomorrow.

10 YEAR OLD BOY KIDNAPED, HELD FOR RANSOM

TWO MEN IN CHICAGO HELD TO-DAY FOR QUESTIONING IN MATTER

THREAT OF DEATH OVER YOUNG WM. RANIERI, AND RANSOM SET AT $60,000

Chicago, Sept. 14.—(UP)—Two men were held by police today for questioning in connection with the kidnapping of 10-year-old William Ranieri, held under threat of death for a ransom of $60,000.

The men were Salvatore Mastrianni, owner of a poolroom, and Reando Skid, a sewer digger who had been employed by A. Frank Ranieri, the boy's father, a sewer contractor.

Police arrested the men when it became known Ranieri had consulted with them secretly. It was believed Mastrianni and Skid might be acting as go-betweens for the father and the abductors.

Ranieri previously had told police he was confident his son would be returned today. He was believed to have been in communication with the kidnapers yesterday and to have arranged for the boy's return.

It was investigation of the father's secret journey to supposed agents of the extortionists that led to the two arrests. Police hoped to obtain information from Mastrianni and Skid which might lead to arrest of the ring leaders of Chicago's Mafia.

The action of the father in attempting to negotiate with the kidnapers through his own people was looked on by police as evidence of his fear that police activity and publicity would bring upon him and his son vengeance included in the Mafia code.

BOBBY JONES IS SHOOTING PEERLESS GOLF AT BRAE BURN

ENTERS THE FINAL ROUND OF AMATEUR PLAY

DEFEATS PHILLIPS FINLAY, 13 UP AND 12 TO PLAY

PERKINS FINISHES 1 ON GEORGE VOIGHT OF NORTH HILLS

By FRANK GETTY
(United Press Sports Editor)
Braeburn Country Club, West Newton, Mass., Sept. 14.—(UP)—Shooting 24 holes of peerless golf in one under fours, Bobby Jones of Atlanta entered the final round of the 32nd National Amateur Championship today by defeating Phillips Finlay, 20-year-old Harvard Sophomore, 13 up and 12 to play.

The titleholder was at his best with a brilliant round of 70 in the morning, and six holes in one better than par to top off the one-sided match in the afternoon.

Finlay won but two holes during the entire match, which was the third in as many weeks that Jones has won by such an overwhelming margin.

It began to look like an international final for T. Phillips Perkins, British amateur champion, was five up on George Voight of North Hills at the 27th. The medalist went to pieces in the afternoon after being but one down at the end of the first 18 holes.

The steadiness of Perkins' play on the outside nine made him stand out as a dangerous contender for Jones' title in the finals.

Braeburn Country Club, West Newton, Mass., Sept. 14.—The possibility of a final match between the amateur champions of the United States and Great Britain loomed today at Braeburn when Bobby Jones led Phillips Finlay, 9 up, at the end of 18 holes of their semi-final match, and T. Phillips Perkins finished the morning round, one up on George Voight of North Hills.

Braeburn Country Club, West Newton, Mass., Sept. 14.—Four able golfers, as strong a quartet as ever reached the semi-final round of a national championship, competed today for amateur honors at Braeburn. The stalwart figure of Robert Tyre Jones, Jr., stood out among the little group of semi-finalists which went whacking away down the sloping first fairway on the quest for his title.

First to tee off were George Voight of North Hills and his opponent, Phillips Perkins, the British amateur champion, who is the first of his countrymen to reach the semi-final round of an American championship since Willie Hunter won his way that far in 1921.

After the smaller gallery which chose to surround this match had been swept from the first fairway, Bobby Jones teed off against Phillips Finlay, the Harvard Sophomore, a newcomer to national golfing fame.

The champion is the only one of the four who has reached the semi-final round of the National Amateur Championship before this year.

"Tim" Perkins is making his first golfing visit to the United States and Voight, who spread-eagled the field in winning the qualifying medal, never before qualified.

As for Phillips Finlay, he first qualified at Minnikahda in 1927, where he led the field the first day with a 71. Later the young Harvard student was put out in the third round by Francis Ouimet.

A long driver and a great player with the masher, Finlay is a difficult opponent for any golfer. A round such as Bobby Jones played against Ray Gorton on Wednesday would leave the Atlantan at the mercy of the Harvard boy.

A round such as the champion played against John Beck Thursday would be quite too much for Phillips.

2 FOREIGNERS PLAYING AT FOREST HILLS

AMERICAN FORCES DID NOT COLLAPSE IN TENNIS PLAY, AS EXPECTED

INVADERS FADE AWAY UNTIL ONLY COCHET MAY SURVIVE AS SEMI-FINALIST

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

Forest Hills, N. Y., Sept. 14.—The two foreigners—Henri Cochet of France and Jack Crawford of Australia—left in the national tennis championships today faced an uphill struggle to remain in the tournament.

Instead of the anticipated collapse of the American forces, the invaders have gradually faded away until only Cochet loomed as a possible semi-finalist.

Rain and darkness halted two quarter final matches before they were completed yesterday after Geo. Lott, Jr., Chicago youngster, and Frank X. Shields, 18-year-old New York boy, had galloped into the semi-finals in straight set victories.

Cochet was to resume his match with Gregory Mangim, 20-year-old Newark, N. J., phenom, who has developed from the 26th ranking player of the United States in 1927 to one of the outstanding young players of 1928.

Francis T. Hunter, the New Rochelle veteran, who has been beating back to keep pace with the sensational strides of the younger group, had to win only one more set from Jack Crawford to enter the semi-finals. Hunter won the first set from Crawford, 7-5, dropped the second, 3-6, and won the third, 6-3.

Helen Wills, women's champion of the United States, France and England, was to play an exhibition match today with an unnamed male opponent in addition to the completion of the two quarter-final matches. No other matches were scheduled today.

The semi-finals will be played on Saturday, with Lott meeting the winner of the Hunter-Crawford match in the upper half and Shields opposing the winner of the Mangim-Cochet match in the lower half. The finals will be put over until Monday.

Forest Hills, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Francis T. Hunter, regarded as through as a top rank player before the national singles tennis championship opened, advanced to the semi-finals today when he defeated Jack Crawford, young Australian star, 7-5, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4, in a resumption of their match halted at the end of the third set yesterday by rain and darkness.

Hunter will meet George Lott, Jr., Chicago, in the upper half finals on Saturday. Lott gained his bracket by defeating Johnny Doeg, California youngster in straight sets yesterday.

Yesterday's Hero—Carl Hubbell, New York Giants pitcher, who was sent to the mound in the ninth inning with the tying and winning runs on bases and two out and fanned Brown on three pitched balls, to give the New York Giants a 7 to 6 victory over the Boston Braves. In the first game Larry Benton pitched the Giants to a 12 to 2 victory over the Braves.

Masterful pitching by Sheriff Blake gave the Chicago Cubs a 6 to 1 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Brooklyn Robins defeated the Philadelphia Phillies, 10 to 0. The Robins collected seventeen safeties.

The St. Louis Browns took an early lead to win from the Chicago White Sox 6 to 4.

N. Y. GIANTS CREEP UP ON ST. LOUIS CARDS

New York, Sept. 14.—(U.P.)—The New York Giants advanced to within one and one-half games of the St. Louis Cardinals in the National league pennant race yesterday by defeating the Boston Braves in a double-header, 12 to 2 and 7 to 6. The Chicago Cubs won from the St. Louis Cardinals 6 to 1 and are now within two games of the league leaders.

The leading teams in the American league were idle.

A SUCCESSFUL SIX NOW WINNING EVEN GREATER SUCCESS

SPECTACULAR SUCCESS

is proving it 'Chief of the Sixes'

In the tremendous success which Pontiac Six is enjoying is ample reason for designating this great General Motors car "Chief of the Sixes." Never has any new car risen so rapidly in the estimation of motor car buyers for during the first six months of 1928, over 136,000 Pontiacs were sold—the largest volume ever achieved by any car during the first half of its third year in production! This great public acceptance tells more of what Pontiac offers at $745 than even the most complete listing of such features as Fisher bodies, 186 cu. in. engine, the G-M-R cylinder head, cross-flow radiator, foot-controlled headlights, coincidental lock, etc., etc. Come in for a ride today and learn why its sales sweep ever upward.

extra speed.
EXTRA POWER!
—No Extra Cost!

THERE is nothing ordinary about Shell Gasoline... except its price. The process by which it is made is a vast improvement over older methods... the results it delivers are consequently a revelation to the motorist who is using it for the first time.

This Shell refining process is discriminating. It takes only the most volatile elements from the crude oil and rejects all the greasy, sluggish parts. It is a more costly manufacturing procedure, but is necessary to insure a lively, quick-starting, superior gasoline worthy to bear the Shell name.

You will realize the advantages of using this "Extra Dry" gasoline when you fill up with Shell. Smooth, effortless acceleration. Extra speed for the open road. Extra power on the hills.

Drive to any Shell yellow-red service station or Shell dealer today and try this superior gasoline. Remember, it costs more to produce, but costs you no more than the ordinary kind.

BOBBY JONES IS SHOOTING PEERLESS GOLF AT BRAE BURN

ENTERS THE FINAL ROUND OF AMATEUR PLAY

DEFEATS PHILLIPS FINLAY, 13 UP AND 12 TO PLAY

PERKINS FINISHES 1 ON GEORGE VOIGHT OF NORTH HILLS

By FRANK GETTY
(United Press Staff Editor)
Braeburn Country Club, West Newton, Mass., Sept. 14.—(UP)—Shooting 24 holes of peerless golf in one under fours, Bobby Jones of Atlanta entered the final round of the 32nd National Amateur Championship today by defeating Phillips Finlay, 20-year-old Harvard Sophomore, 13 up and 12 to play.

The titleholder was at his best with a brilliant round of 70 in the morning, and six holes in one better than par to top off the one-sided match in the afternoon.

Finlay won but two holes during the entire match, which was the third in as many weeks that Jones has won by such an overwhelming margin.

It began to look like an international final for T. Phillips Perkins, British amateur champion, was five up on George Voight of North Hills at the 27th. The medalist went to pieces in the afternoon after being but one down at the end of the first 18 holes.

The steadiness of Perkins' play on the outside nine made him stand out as a dangerous contender for Jones' title in the finals.

Braeburn Country Club, West Newton, Mass., Sept. 14.—The possibility of a finals match between the amateur champions of the United States and Great Britain loomed today at Braeburn when Bobby Jones led Phillips Finlay, 9 up, at the end of 18 holes of their semi-final match, and T. Phillips Perkins finished the morning round, one up on George Voight of North Hills.

Braeburn Country Club, West Newton, Mass., Sept. 14.—Four able golfers, as strong a quartet as ever reached the semi-final round of a national championship, competed today for amateur honors at Braeburn.

The stalwart figure of Robert Tyre Jones, Jr., stood out among the little group of semi-finalists which went whacking away down the sloping first fairway on the quest for his title.

First to tee off were George Voight of North Hills and his opponent, Phillips Perkins, the British amateur champion, who is the first of his countrymen to reach the semi-final round of an American championship since Willie Hunter won his way that far in 1921.

After the smaller gallery which chose to surround this match had been swept from the first fairway, Bobby Jones teed off against Phillips Finlay, the Harvard Sophomore, a newcomer to national golfing fame.

The champion is the only one of the four who has reached the semi-final round of the National Amateur Championship before this year.

"Tim" Perkins is making his first golfing visit to the United States and Voight, who spread-eagled the field in winning the qualifying medal, never before qualified.

As for Phillips Finlay, he first qualified at Minnikahda in 1927, where he led the field the first day with a 71. Later the young Harvard student was put out in the third round by Francis Ouimet.

A long driver and a great player with the masher, Finlay is a difficult opponent for any golfer. A round such as Bobby Jones played against Ray Gorton on Wednesday would leave the Atlantian at the mercy of the Harvard boy.

A round such as the champion played against John Beck Thursday would be quite too much for Phillips.

2 FOREIGNERS PLAYING AT FOREST HILLS

AMERICAN FORCES DID NOT COLLAPSE IN TENNIS PLAY, AS EXPECTED

INVADERS FADE AWAY UNTIL ONLY COCHET MAY SURVIVE AS SEMI-FINALIST

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Forest Hills, N. Y., Sept. 14.—The two foreigners—Henri Cochet of France and Jack Crawford of Australia—left in the national tennis championships today faced an uphill struggle to remain in the tournament.

Instead of the anticipated collapse of the American forces, the invaders have gradually faded away until only Cochet loomed as a possible semi-finalist.

Rain and darkness halted two quarter final matches before they were completed yesterday after Geo. Lott, Jr., Chicago youngster, and Frank X. Shields, 18-year-old New York boy, had galloped into the semi-finals in straight set victories.

Cochet was to resume his match with Gregory Mangim, 20-year-old Newark, N. J., phenom, who has developed from the 26th ranking player of the United States in 1927 to one of the outstanding young players of 1928.

Francis T. Hunter, the New Rochelle veteran, who has been beating back to keep pace with the sensational strides of the younger group, had to win only one more set from Jack Crawford to enter the semi-finals. Hunter won the first set from Crawford, 7-5, dropped the second, 3-6, and won the third, 6-3.

Helen Wills, women's champion of the United States, France and England, was to play an exhibition match today with an unnamed male opponent in addition to the completion of the two quarter-final matches. No other matches were scheduled today.

The semi-finals will be played on Saturday, with Lott meeting the winner of the Hunter-Crawford match in the upper half and Shields opposing the winner of the Mangim-Cochet match in the lower half. The finals will be put over until Monday.

Forest Hills, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Francis T. Hunter, regarded as through as a top rank player before the national singles tennis championship opened, advanced to the semi-finals today when he defeated Jack Crawford, young Australian star, 7-5, 3-6, 6-3, 6-4, in a resumption of their match halted at the end of the third set yesterday by rain and darkness.

Hunter will meet George Lott, Jr., Chicago, in the upper half finals on Saturday. Lott gained his bracket by defeating Johnny Doeg, California youngster in straight sets yesterday.

Watching the Scoreboard

(By United Press)

Yesterday's Hero—Carl Hubbell, New York Giants pitcher, who was sent to the mound in the ninth inning with the tying and winning runs on bases and two out and fanned Brown on three pitched balls, to give the New York Giants a 7 to 6 victory over the Boston Braves. In the first game Larry Benton pitched the Giants to a 12 to 2 victory over the Braves.

Masterful pitching by Sheriff Blake gave the Chicago Cubs a 6 to 1 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Brooklyn Robins defeated the Philadelphia Phillies, 10 to 0. The Robins collected seventeen safeties.

The St. Louis Browns took an early lead to win from the Chicago White Sox 6 to 4.

N. Y. GIANTS CREEP UP ON ST. LOUIS CARDS

New York, Sept. 14.—(U.P.)—The New York Giants advanced to within one and one-half games of the St. Louis Cardinals in the National league pennant race yesterday by defeating the Boston Braves in a double-header, 12 to 2 and 7 to 6. The Chicago Cubs won from the St. Louis Cardinals 6 to 1 and are now within two games of the league leaders.

The leading teams in the American league were idle.

★HILLS BROS' exclusive process of Controlled Roasting

★ As you cook fritters a few at a time, so Hills Bros. roast coffee by a continuous process a few pounds at a time.

A few fritters at a time in the hot fat permits each one to turn out uniformly crisp, brown and delicious. Controlled Roasting creates similar results in Hills Bros. Coffee. Every berry is roasted evenly. Uniform aroma and flavor such as you won't find in any other coffee are assured. Tasting is believing.

The coffee-critical West prefers Hills Bros. Coffee because it brings complete satisfaction in every cup. Ask for Hills Bros. Coffee by name and look for the Arab on the can. Hills Bros. Coffee is always packed in vacuum.

Fresh from the original vacuum pack. Easily opened with the key.

RAIN DAMAGE AFFECTS BASEMENTS CHIEFLY

Deluge Floods Scores of Homes and Stores, Doing Considerable Damage

2.69 INCHES FELL

Two Fuses in Transformers Blow Out; N. P. Repair Threatened Washouts

Flooding of scores of basements throughout the business and residential sections of the city during the deluge of rain throughout the night and early this morning caused damage that will run into thousands of dollars, it is believed.

The rain came down literally in "barrels," starting shortly before 8 p. m. yesterday and continuing practically throughout the evening and night.

Rain gauges at noon today showed that 2.69 inches of rain fell. Thunder and lightning accompanied the rain last evening, two fuses in transformers being blown out, the one in West Brainerd near the Hitch Apartments and the other in South Brainerd in the ten hundred block on Oak street.

Telephone service throughout the county was slightly hampered although no serious trouble was reported. Local trouble to lines was repaired this morning.

Six places were under water on highway No. 35 north of Aitkin, A. W. Moulster, state highway engineer for this district reported this morning.

Indication of the abundance of rain throughout the district recently is judged by the fact that Esquagum Lake, 15 miles north of Aitkin raised three inches during the past week.

Stores downtown reported water seeping into their basements and in several cases coming through show windows partly damaging goods.

The city engineer's department had a full crew out early today clearing the streets of all debris to permit the excess water to run down the sewers.

Block's alleys in the basement of the Elks building received more than its share of the amount of rain water. It is being pumped out today and everything done to avoid considerable damage.

Hanski's bath house in Southeast Brainerd was hard hit. The basement was completely flooded and 500 quarts of fruit stored there were floating around in the water.

Northern Pacific railway repair crews were busy repairing sections where washouts threatened. One of the sections affected was that between Oak and Norwood streets.

Unstacked grains in the fields suffered considerably while clover was hit harder than other crops. Grains and grasses stacked lightly however will also feel the effect of the rain.

While considerable damage was reported on the farms the rain afforded a thorough soaking of the ground which will aid the farmers in their ploughing. The rain will also provide a storing up power for moisture to aid crops next year.

Basements flooded in the downtown area included the following: Four inches of water in Judd Wright and Son hardware store.

Two to three inches in W. J. Hall's Music House.

Three inches in Hart's barber shop Laurel street.

Seven to eight inches of water in the Fidelity store.

Six inches in the National Tea Co.

RAINS AFFECT

STATE HIGHWAYS

Rains in many parts of the state have had an adverse effect on road conditions in many parts of the state, especially on routes where construction is in progress or where traffic is very heavy. Conditions generally are good, however.

New pavement has been opened on T. H. No. 3, from Sauk Centre to West Union.

Due to heavy traffic, it became necessary to close the new pavement on T. H. No. 12, between St. Paul and Hudson, until shoudering is completed. It will be open evenings and Sundays.

Detailed reports of conditions on the roads of Brainerd Lake Region follow:

ACTION INVOLVES MARACO MINE LEASE

Plaintiff Demands $1,500,000 Damages in Action Started in Federal District Court

Marquette Mining Co. Alleges Misrepresentation of Iron Ore in Mining Property

A law suit in which the plaintiff demands $1,500,000 damages and which involves an iron ore property lease in Crow Wing county was to be tried at federal court which opened at Duluth this week.

The law suit was instituted by the Marquette Ore company against D. R. McLennan, of Lake Forest, Ill.; Robert M. Adams and Ward Ames, of Duluth, and the North Range Iron company controlled by the three men. The suit involves the lease of iron ore property in Crow Wing county described as follows: Lots 3 and 4, southwest quarter of northwest quarter of section 4 in township 46, range 26, known as the Maraco mine at Trommald, on the Cuyuna range.

The North Range firm was incorporated Feb. 4, 1919, the complaint states, for the purpose of handling a lease on the iron ore property. They obtained the lease from the Cuyuna Fee Mining company which was later turned over to the plaintiff by the defendants.

The complaint alleges that the defendants informed the plaintiff that considerable exploration work, drilling and sampling had been done on the property. This, the plaintiff alleges, was falsely represented, and known to the three men. The Marquette Ore company also alleges that the tests were not done according to good engineering practice, standard methods of chemical analyses and standard development of mining. The plaintiff also alleges that the defendants failed to furnish true facts and conditions as to the nature and extent of the ore bodies and the ore formation of the premises.

When the lease was signed, the defendants stated that 6,000,000 tons of ore could be mined at a profit and the plaintiff alleges that less than 1,000,000 tons of ore was taken from the mine.

The Marquette Ore company demands $1,500,000 damages. It alleges that large sums of money were spent for equipment necessary to handle the ore, buildings, shafts, railroad tracks, washing plant and other material.

Old Man Had Come to Arrowhead Resort on Mille Lacs Lake Two Days Ago

An old man who had not plowed for 15 years and wanted to do so to prove he had not forgotten how, was found dead yesterday afternoon beside the plow on the farm section of the Arrowhead Resort on Mille Lacs Lake.

The man is W. S. Larson, of Willmar, Minn., who came to the resort owned by O. V. Carlson, two days ago to stay for three weeks. Death was due to apoplexy, Coroner D. E. Whitney who was called, announced today.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete pending word from relatives in Willmar.

The body was found near the plow by resort employees. It was apparent that the deceased had sat down on the plow to rest and had then tumbled over dead.

The man had plowed three furrows around the field before he was stricken. Larson is believed to be about 80 years old.

GOVERNOR SMITH TIGHTENS UP HIS POLITICAL FENCES

PAYING PARTICULAR ATTENTION TO HIS HOME STATE OF NEW YORK

WANTS SITUATION WELL IN HAND BEFORE GOING ON WESTERN TOUR

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Albany, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Governor Alfred E. Smith had tightened up political fences today in his own state, one of the critical states in the presidential election, so that he can leave the situation well in hand as he turns to his western campaign.

He discussed the state campaign in all its phases, including the likely gubernatorial nominee, last night at the mansion with state leaders, headed by M. William Bray of Utica, new state chairman.

With this important conference, the democratic candidate dismissed state affairs until his return to Rochester October 1, when he will sound the call to chieftains of the democratic state convention.

The democratic candidate began to receive at his office today messages upon his statement "nailing as a lie" the report that he was "disgustingly intoxicated" recently at the Syracuse state fair, which constituted his first formal recognition of the "whispering campaign."

Smith displayed keen interest in the publicity given his statement.

The governor displayed to correspondents several sets of gaily colored suspenders sent him by a manufacturer.

"Judging from the formidable character of these suspenders," he added, "there's one thing I won't lose on this trip."

SALESMAN'S PETITION FOR DISCHARGE
In the District Court of the United States, for the Fifth Division, District of Minnesota.

In the Matter of Max F. Evans, Bankrupt, in Bankruptcy No. 3229.
To the Honorable William A. Cant, Judge of the District Court of the United States for the District of Minnesota.

Max F. Evans, of City of Brainerd, in the County of Crookston, and State of Minnesota, in said District, respectfully represents:

That on the 22nd day of January, 1924, he was duly adjudged bankrupt under the Acts of Congress relating to bankruptcy; that he has duly surrendered all his property and rights of property, and has fully complied with all the requirements of said Acts and of the orders of the court touching his bankruptcy.

WHEREFORE HE PRAYS that he may be decreed by the court to have a full discharge from all debts provable against his estate under said Bankruptcy Acts, except such debts as are exempted by law from such discharge.

Dated this 14th day of May, A. D. 1926.
MAX F. EVANS, Bankrupt.

Order of Notice Thereon
United States of America, District of Minnesota, ss.:
On this 14th day of May, A. D. 1926, on reading the foregoing petition, it is ORDERED BY THE COURT, that a hearing be had upon the same on the 24th day of November, A. D. 1926, before said Court, at Duluth, in said District, at ten o'clock in the forenoon; and that notice thereof be published in a newspaper published in Brainerd, in said District, and that all known creditors and other persons in interest may appear at the same time and place and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of the said petitioner should not be granted.

And it is further ordered by the Court, that the clerk shall send, by mail, upon payment by the bankrupt, or his attorney, of the actual expense thereof, to all known creditors copies of said petition and this order, addressed to them at their places of residence as stated.

WITNESS the Honorable WILLIAM A. CANT, Judge of said Court, and the seal thereof, at Duluth, in said District, on the 14th day of May, A. D. 1926.

WHAT HAS HAPPENED SO FAR.

JANET WILDE is the young and pretty daughter of Fenimore Wilde, one of Broadway's favorite actors. His son Frank is an idler and, like his father, a spendthrift. The girl has a hard time mothering them both. On the eve of a great opening night for her father, Janet accepts the proposal of Gordon Pryor, a young but impecunious actor. In a restaurant she meets a young musician, Leonard Quigg, who attracts her. Janet's father drops dead after a brilliant performance, leaving her and her brother almost penniless. Gordon Pryor breaks his engagement and Janet realizes that it was her father's prestige and not love for her that prompted his proposal. She goes to the office of John Montague, theatrical impresario who knew her father well, and asks him for a job.

NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY.

CHAPTER XIII.
"I THINK I said, Miss Wilde, that we had everything at this bar," John Montague replied after a little pause. "So you don't want champagne—let you do want a job?"

Janet laughed, and nodded. "Sit down," he ordered gruffly, but with a whimsical gleam in his eyes. "I suppose that you've inherited some of Fenimore's genius. With your beauty, a teaspoonful will be enough—under my direction. I suppose you see yourself as a star already, with your name in electric lights and people naming new perfumes after you?"

"I don't want to go on the stage, thank you, Mr. Montague," Janet replied evenly.

"You don't want to go on the stage?" he repeated. "Listen! This is the first drink I have had this morning! Didn't I hear you say you wanted a job? Am I goofy—or are you?"

"I have heard of jobs off the stage," Janet put in quietly.

"What do you want to do?" he asked, looking at her with interest.

"Ultimately, I think I would like to be in the producing end of it, Mr. Montague," Janet announced.

"I have heard nothing but the theatre from my cradle up, and so I suppose I know something about it. That's part of me. But there's another part that makes me dislike the stage. That's why I came to you. I am an expert stenographer, and I thought that you might have some job going that would pay a comfortable salary to a competent person who did know a little of the theatre, and who has been a secretary, to one of the most difficult of employers—father."

"Now that's a thought!" Montague mused aloud. "The girl attracted him enormously, but he was too clever to show it, and if she did happen to be an expert secretary, he could use her—sure, he could."

"I suppose I have been asked for a job on an average of three times a day ever since I started producing plays," he said. "But this is the first time that an attractive-looking girl has told me that she doesn't feel inwardly a Bernhardt or a Duse. Yes, I think I could offer you something—and right now. I have many secretaries, but I need a sort of extra private secretary who would have nothing to do with the routine of the office, but who can be at hand to take notes—sometimes at night—of my criticisms on scripts I am reading, my more confidential letters, and so on. The girl who had this job has just left me, and I have been going on with my usual office help. If you want to try it, you can. Fifty a week—and no regular hours, except I never want to see you in the mornings. Afternoons, occasional evenings, and you will work on Sunday the same as on any other day. That is, if I need you. What about it?"

"Thank you very much," Janet said, her eyes shining with enthusiasm. "That is exactly the sort of job I want, and the sort I know I could fill."

"You can start in tomorrow," John Montague informed her. "I hope you won't let Christmas interfere with your work?"

"I want to forget Christmas this year," Janet said, a little dolefully. "Frank is away—that's my brother—and—and—"

The door flew open and a girl stormed into the room. Janet glanced at her and recognized Montague's chief woman star, Lucille Rhodes. She was a tall, blazingly beautiful creature in the mid thirties, who looked ten years younger.

"And since when is that female at the desk to stop me coming in, John?" she flared tempestuously. "Said that you were particularly engaged and that you were not to be interrupted. Who are you?"

"A somewhat nervous man this morning," he rasped at her. "And it's time, Lucille, that you learned that this office is my office. They did quite right to tell you that I was engaged."

"So I see!" Lucille sneered with a glance of contempt in Janet's direction.

"Let me introduce my new secretary, Miss Janet Wilde, daughter of the late actor," John Montague said briefly. He turned to Janet and added: "The lady with the charming temper, as you probably know, is Lucille Rhodes. It will be part of your job, Miss Wilde, to protect me from the temperament of many people who owe their star-like existences to me!"

"And what do you owe me?" the girl blazed at him. "How much money did I make for you, John Montague? And what else have you received from me? If you think I'm afraid of the world knowing some of the things I could tell it—then you are very greatly mistaken!"

Janet rose from her chair as though to leave the room. She had heard gossip that connected the names of the producer and his star, and she felt it more comfortable to retire.

"Sit down," Montague ordered her. "I'm very glad this happened. This is the kind of thing a confidential secretary has to witness. You merely see Miss Rhodes being—herself. Be anything else you like, Lucille, but don't—don't be yourself."

Somehow, his utter defiance of her seemed to quiet the creature. She laughed suddenly, and then went on in a conversational voice: "I just came in to tell you that I won't play in that travelling play that I warned you not to touch. It isn't for me—it isn't for any actress."

"Acting? Acting? Who said anything about acting?" he asked her with a sardonic smile. "When have I asked you to act, Lucille? When do I ask the impossible of anyone?" He rose and she retreated from him so that Janet was irresistibly reminded of a tigress and her trainer. "Go home, woman! Go home and study that part! I will let you know when rehearsals begin, and meanwhile remember that I have made and broken more half-baked morons who thought they could act than I could shake a stick at."

Miss Rhodes' dignity fell from her. She turned and walked to the door. Then she swung round and faced the great producer. She made a face at him and stuck out her tongue!

Montague laughed. "I hope they'll like her if they get her," he said quietly. "She's not a bad actress, but she has to be kept in her place. I'm glad it happened, for that sort of thing is just an incident of daily occurrence. Do you think you will like the job?"

"I think I shall love it!" Janet smiled at him. "Then I'll report for duty tomorrow!"

"Yes—come in about two—here." He touched a button and the woman who looked like a horse entered quickly.

"From tomorrow," John Montague remarked without looking up. "Miss Wilde is my confidential secretary. Let that be understood."

Janet walked all the way home, excited by her success. As she reached the apartment house, a man came down the steps.

"I've just been ringing your bell," Leonard Quigg said, as he took off his hat and stood smiling at her. "I came round to explain about last night."

GOVERNOR SMITH TIGHTENS UP HIS POLITICAL FENCES

PAYING PARTICULAR ATTENTION TO HIS HOME STATE OF NEW YORK
WANTS SITUATION WELL IN HAND BEFORE GOING ON WESTERN TOUR

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Albany, N. Y., Sept. 14.—Governor Alfred E. Smith has tightened up political fences today in his own state, one of the critical states in the presidential election, so that he can leave the situation well in hand as he turns to his western campaign.
He discussed the state campaign in all its phases, including the likely gubernatorial nominee, last night at the mansion with state leaders, headed by M. William Bray of Utica, new state chairman.
With this important conference, the democratic candidate dismissed state affairs until his return to Rochester October 1, when he will sound the call to chieftains of the democratic state convention.
The democratic candidate began to receive at his office today messages upon his statement "nailing as a lie" the report that he was "disgustingly intoxicated" recently at the Syracuse state fair, which constituted his first formal recognition of the "whispering campaign."
Smith displayed keen interest in the publicity given his statement.
The governor displayed to correspondents several sets of gaily colored suspenders sent him by a manufacturer.
"Judging from the formidable character of these suspenders," he added, "there's one thing I won't lose on this trip."

BANKRUPT'S PETITION FOR DISCHARGE
In the District Court of the United States, for the Fifth Division, District of Minnesota.
In the Matter of Max F. Evans, Bankrupt, in Bankruptcy No. 3229.
To the Honorable William A. Cant, Judge of the District Court of the United States for the District of Minnesota.
Max F. Evans, of City of Brainerd, in the County of Crow Wing, and State of Minnesota, in said District, respectfully represents:
That on the 22nd day of January, 1926, he was duly adjudged bankrupt under the Acts of Congress relating to bankruptcy; that he has duly surrendered all his property and rights of property, and has fully complied with all the requirements of said Acts and of the orders of the court touching his bankruptcy.
WHEREFORE HE PRAYS that he may be decreed by the court to have a full discharge from all debts provable against his estate under said Bankruptcy Acts, except such debts as are exempted by law from such discharge.
Dated this 14th day of May, A. D. 1929.
MAX F. EVANS, Bankrupt.

Order of Notice Thereon
United States of America, District of Minnesota, ss.:
On this 14th day of May, A. D. 1929, on reading the foregoing petition, it is ORDERED BY THE COURT, that a hearing be had upon the same on the 24th day of November, A. D. 1929, before said Court, at Duluth, in said District, at ten o'clock in the forenoon; and that notice thereof be published in The Dispatch, a newspaper printed at Brainerd, in said District, and that all known creditors and other persons in interest may appear at the same time and place and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of the said petitioner should not be granted.
And it is further ordered by the Court, that the clerk shall send, by mail, upon payment by the bankrupt or his attorney, of the actual expense thereof, to all known creditors copies of said petition and this order, addressed to them at their places of residence as stated.
WITNESS the Honorable WILLIAM A. CANT, Judge of said Court, and the seal thereof, at Duluth, in said District, on the 14th day of May, A. D. 1929.
